

roaring good price

If your tot has not turned two yet, grab this great deal and take a holiday Down Under by flying Tiger Airways.

The airline, which is launching its new Perth route on 23 March, will charge just $50 for a return ticket (no hidden tax) if a child under two travels on his parent's lap. Alas, kids above two don't enjoy this rate. Prices for adults and kids above two start from S$355, including tax. The airline will fly four times a week to Perth (daily during peak season). Families with children get priority boarding. You can look forward to in-flight entertainment onboard all Singapore - Perth flights (available at a fee). Book your trip at www.tigerairways.com.

family values

NTUC Childcare has been awarded the Pro-Family Business Mark for its pro-family efforts. Their centres provide safe and well-designed environments, and organise free parenting workshops and seminars, field trips and centre celebrations involving families. They even have parents' corners. The award, given by the Making Businesses Pro-Family Workgroup, is supported by the Ministry of Community Development, Youth and Sports.

newsflash

GoldRush Mark your baby's arrival with a sparkling memento. If your baby is born in the Chinese zodiac year of the pig at Mount Alvernia Hospital, a limited edition, pure gold-plated medallion is yours to keep. Designed by the hospital and Wyeth Singapore Pte Ltd, this exclusive collectible item is produced by the Singapore Mint.

show the love

Open your wallets for a good cause today. Make a minimum donation of $7 to the Children's Cancer Foundation (CCF) and you'll receive a commemorative Combi CashCard (no stored value). For every transaction made using this card or through eNETS (till 31-Dec), NETS will donate one cent to CCF. CashCard holders also enjoy free drinks and monthly movie benefits. E-mail your pledge amount and details to tiffany.how@ccf.org.sg, or call 6835-2665. For more information, visit www.ccf.org.sg.

Ready, Steady, Go

Parenthood-ready couples spent a fruitful afternoon at the Fertility Seminar on 13 Jan, getting the low-down from doctors on how to better their chances of conceiving. The seminar at the Amara Singapore Hotel was organised by Mother & Baby and Parkway Hospitals Singapore. No stone was left unturned during the frank and engaging discussions, from timing your romps to improving sperm quality, and advice on assisted reproduction.

Fertility Seminar
DATE:	13 Jan 07 (Sat)
TIME:	2pm to 5pm
VENUE:	Connection 3 & 4, Amara Hotel
PROGRAM
1.30pm	Registration
2.00pm	Seminar Starts Opening Address & Welcome Greetings Topic 1: How can I increase my chances of getting pregnant? <small>Speakers: Dr Praveen Kumar Chandra, Consultant, Gynaecology, Singapore General Hospital</small>
2.45pm	Topic 2: What can I do if I have poor quality sperm? <small>Speakers: Dr Rig Nara Chandra, MD, PhD, FRCGS, FRACD, FRCR (Gynaecology), FRCR (Obstetrics)</small>
3.30pm	Coffee Break
4.00pm	Topic 3: What is assisted reproduction? When is it necessary? <small>Speakers: Dr Elizabeth Tay, Consultant, Women's Health &amp; Fertility, Parkway Hospitals Singapore; Murali Chandra, Medical Director, Parkway Hospitals</small>
4.45pm	End of seminar

