GOLFING FOR A CAUSE

Ring Road Collective and The Rice Company Ltd (TRCL) jointly organised the Art of Golf Charity Masters at Tanjong Golf Course in Sentosa in April. The tournament raised nearly $200,000 for TRCL's Art of Play @ Schools programme, supported by The Business Times Budding Artists Fund. It provides after-school creative development and learning experiences for underserved children. As Ring Road Collective's Zaddon Lim notes, "It only takes one class, one mentor, or one moment on stage to change how someone sees themselves." a+ was the event's official media partner.

Children's Cancer Foundation (CCF) kicked off its Hair for Hope campaign in April to raise awareness for childhood cancer. More than 300 people, led by CCF CEO Koh Shukai, gathered at Kong Meng San Phor Kark See Monastery and shaved their heads for the cause. Hair for Hope aims to raise $5 million by 16 August 2026 to support programmes and services for kids with cancer and their families. The main event will take place at VivoCity on 25 and 26 July.
